New Web site makes carpool matching easier

More than 1,230 Idahoans take advantage of Idaho's free rideshare program - www.RideshareOnline.com. Now, the ride-matching experience just got better, thanks to the launch of a new Web site.

Both individuals seeking ride matches and organizations managing regional or internal employee programs will be better able to personalize, track and manage their Rideshare matches.

"The new Web site is a significant improvement to what existed previously," said Randy Kyrias, Idaho Transportation Department (ITD) Division of Public Transportation administrator. "There are a number of expanded ridesharing features and the new School Pool and Bike Buddy features offer matching opportunities outside of the regular commuter demographic."
